T. B. REED, OF MAINE

Massachusetts Convention Declares for Him and Against Free Coinage.

A BIG ANNUAL BOAT RACE

The Texas Convention at Last Selects Allison and Reed Delegates.

THE ENTOMBED MINERS

EASTON, Mass., March 27.—The largest and most enthusiastic republican convention ever held in the Bay state was called to order today at Faneuil hall by Hon. Samuel E. Winslow, and before it was adjourned, Speaker Thos. Brackett Reed, the idol of the followers of the grand old party of the New England states, will have been presented to the nation as a candidate for the presidential nomination upon the republican ticket. In taking this step, Massachusetts acts as a big brother sponsor for her little sister, the commonwealth of Maine. A sound money plank will be endorsed in the platform.

LATER.—Massachusetts republicans elected Reed delegates to the St. Louis convention, and declared against the free coinage of silver.

Against McKinley.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 27.—The state convention elected the following delegates to the St. Louis convention:

N. W. Coney, of Galveston, an Allison man; W. R. McKenson, of Georgetown, a Reed man; E. H. Terrell, of San Antonio, an Allison man; C. H. Ferguson, of Richmond, a Reed man.

Alternates.—W. F. Gross, D. C. Kolp, J. C. Cain and R. C. Smith.

Electors.—George C. Clifford, of San Antonio, and Eugene Marshall, of Dallas.

Report Denied.

LONDON, March 27.—The Chronicle denies the report that Great Britain has purchased Delagoa Bay.

Safely Docked.

PORT ROYAL, South Carolina, March 27.—The battleship "Indiana" was safely docked here, at 7:30, this morning.

Should Have Come to New Mexico.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 27.—Frank Sweeney, a former grand master of the Switchmen's union, died here, today, of consumption.

Basket Shop Raided.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 27.—Five basket shops were raided here last night, and thirty occupants were arrested as gamblers.

All Hope Abandoned.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, March 27.—All hope of saving the sixty coal miners who were entombed by the explosion at Brenntown, have been abandoned. It is believed all of them are dead.

Caught in Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 27.—Sister Paulina and Julia, who fled from the convent at Chicago, of the Sisters of Mary of Chicago, have been found here. She will be returned to Chicago.

Bermuda Expedition.

New York, N. Y., March 27.—The Cuban junta has asked for the reports of the landing of the Bermuda expedition. It is thought that the arrival on the island refers to another party.

High Winds.

DENVER, Colo., March 27.—A severe wind storm struck the city, this afternoon, blowing at the rate of sixty-two miles an hour. No damage reported.

Chippie Creek, Colo., March 27.

A terrific wind, this morning, prostrated the shaft house at the "Little Daisy" mine, and killed John Hay instantly, severely injuring John Hanson. Both men were miners.

LONDON, England, March 27.

A terrific gale swept the channel last night, and it is feared that at least one large steamer has foundered.

A Gilpin Monument.

DENVER, Colo., March 27.—Sunday last was the thirty fifth anniversary of the appointment of the first governor of the Territory of Colorado after its separation from Kansas. Hon. William Gilpin, after whom Gilpin county was named, was the appointee. Almost evenly with the anniversary comes the announcement that some of Governor Gilpin's relatives, most of whom are residents of Maryland, are taking steps looking to the erection of a monument in this city to his memory. The monument, if erected, will doubtless be placed in the capitol grounds. Bernard Gilpin, Jr., a son of Bernard Gilpin, a cousin of the late Governor Gilpin, is at present in Colorado looking into the matter.

Confederate Memorial Day.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 27.—The committee of Confederate veterans having charge of the arrangements for the annual celebration of the southern declaration day, which this year falls on the first Monday of next month, held another meeting today, at which reports were received that the governor and staff, mayor and city officials would take part in the ceremonies, but some would be at half-price on public and school buildings throughout the city, and that the parade would be of imposing dimensions. It was decided to station a detail of four men from the soldiers' home at Lee's circle and at each one of the monuments and tombs at the cemeteries, salute to be fired at a given signal. A large number of reports for the erection of flowers to decorate the tombs and monuments of those who fell in the defense of the south were also designated.

Uprising Against the Whites.

Cape Town, South Africa, March 27.—The uprising in Matabeleland against the whites is creating great excitement. About a dozen people have already been killed. The incantations of a native witch doctor originated it.

Murderer Convicted.

DENVER, Colo., March 27.—William Rose, the convicted murderer of Anna Kuhn, was sentenced by Judge Allen, in the west side criminal court, to twenty-one years in the penitentiary. The jury's verdict in the case had been "murder in the second degree." A motion of Attorney Neil Dennison for a new trial was denied, as was also a motion of the attorney for a stay of judgment.

An Architect Dead.

New York, N. Y., March 27.—W. J. Edbrooke, who designed the Tabor opera house and the Tabor block, in Denver, Colo., and who was supervising architect for the United States government under President Harrison, died at his home in this city, at the age of fifty-four years, of cancer of the stomach. His father was an architect and he was one of four sons, all architects, and all prominent in their profession. His brother, F. E. Edbrooke, of Denver, is one of the leading architects of the west. The deceased resided in Chicago, but his business took him to all parts of the country, and he was well known among architects and builders all over the United States.

An Immense Damage Suit.

New York, N. Y., March 27.—A London dispatch says: Early next month the trial of one of the most remarkable and gigantic damage suits on record will be begun in Lancashire. The plaintiffs are relatives of fifty miners who lost their lives by the flooding of the colliery in which they were working, and the suit is brought against the owners of the mines to recover compensation under the act of parliament known as the employers' liability act. The total amount of damages claimed is in the neighborhood of $750,000. The mine owners have availed themselves of every species of legal strategy to secure the removal of the trial to London, where the case would not be subject to local influences, but the court of appeal, with Lord Justices Lopes and Rigby and Baron Pollock on the bench, has just decided that the case shall be tried in the mining district.

A SUSPECT ARRESTED

AN OPERA HOUSE BURNS

The Cuban Resolutions Delayed in the House by the Appropriation Bills.

GOLD BULLION ADVANCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—Robert Boyd, a sailor, was arrested in this city, this morning, having been identified by Rosie Martin as the "man" who attempted to choke her. He is suspected of being the bandit guilty of strangling many women recently.

Advance of Gold Bullion.

New York, N. Y., March 27.—Banking circles are considerably agitated by the advance in the price of gold bullion by the U. S. treasury. It is believed it will not prevent foreign shipment, under the present conditions of demand from abroad. Japan is now in the market as a purchaser.

Annual Boat Race.

LONDON, England, March 27.—The great annual boat race between Oxford and Cambridge takes place to-morrow on the Thames. There is as much interest in the event as in any previous year, and the contest between the picked oarsmen of the two universities promises to be witnessed by an immense throng of spectators, although there will be fewer royalties on the banks than in previous years. Both crews took their final practice spin today, several thousand people, a goodly number belonging to the betting fraternity, turning out to form their final judgments on the performances of the two crews. Throughout the week the Oxonians have been in excellent form, although the Cambridge men have had the benefit of the supervision of Trevor-Jones, the celebrated coach, and as a result the dark blues are slightly the favorite in the betting. This will be the fifty-second boat race between the two universities. Oxford has been the winner in twenty-seven contests and Cambridge in twenty-three, while the one of 1887 was a dead heat. The start will be made between 1 and 2 o'clock, London time, the Thames being at high tide at 1:45.

Timber Cutting Permit.

From the New Mexican.
John Harrison, of Glorieta, has received permission from the honorable Secretary Hoke Smith to cut the timber off of two sections of land on the Pecos reservation, Las Vegas, N. M.

This is not correct. Mr. Harrison some months ago gave formal public notice through the New Mexican that he would apply for permission to cut timber from certain lands two miles west of the Valley range, on the upper Pecos, not included within the lines of the Pecos national reservation. This application was granted by the interior department under the usual stringent conditions, one of which provides that no trees under twelve inches in diameter shall be felled.
